We create uniforms staff want to wear

Cargo Crew is the home of the modern uniform. Since 2002, we have been designing and manufacturing uniforms worn by 80,000 crews in 90 countries.

We are a purpose-driven business with a passion for original design and a single-minded focus on developing higher performing uniform products that last.

We think deeply about the functional details of our garments to ensure they meet the unique requirements of our hotel clients. Always driving to innovate, we listen to your needs and use these insights to provide you with the leading uniform collection on the market.

Our expertise makes dressing hotel staff in stylish and functional uniforms easy. Cargo Crew uniforms are available on the shelf for same day dispatch, so you can say goodbye to complex stock holdings and long lead times when outfitting your team.

Why choose Cargo Crew for your hotel uniforms?

Original Design

Cargo Crew is a purpose-driven business with a passion for original design and a single minded focus on developing higher performing uniform products that last.

We design our entire range from our Melbourne HQ and engage with our long term manufacturing partners directly.

Commited to Sustainability

Our commitment to make our products genuinely more sustainable is an on going focus for the Cargo Crew team.

From compostable packing to removing plastic wherever possible through to the development of sustainable fabrics we are driven to be the change we want to see.

Ethical Supply Chain

The best uniform programs are created by a hands-on, team of experts with experience curating, project managing and rolling out to businesses to meet their unique needs.

Our talented team come from diverse backgrounds including design, retail, tech, advertising & logistics.

Exclusive Fabric Innovation

As the uniform experts, we made it our mission to develop an exclusive fabric that was specifically created to withstand repeat washing and still look great wash after wash.

Our incredible Fight the Fade™ fabric holds strong against common washing products including Oxygen Bleach agent stain removers such as Napisan, Vanish and Sard Oxy.

“Cargo Crew make bringing a uniform range to life easy”

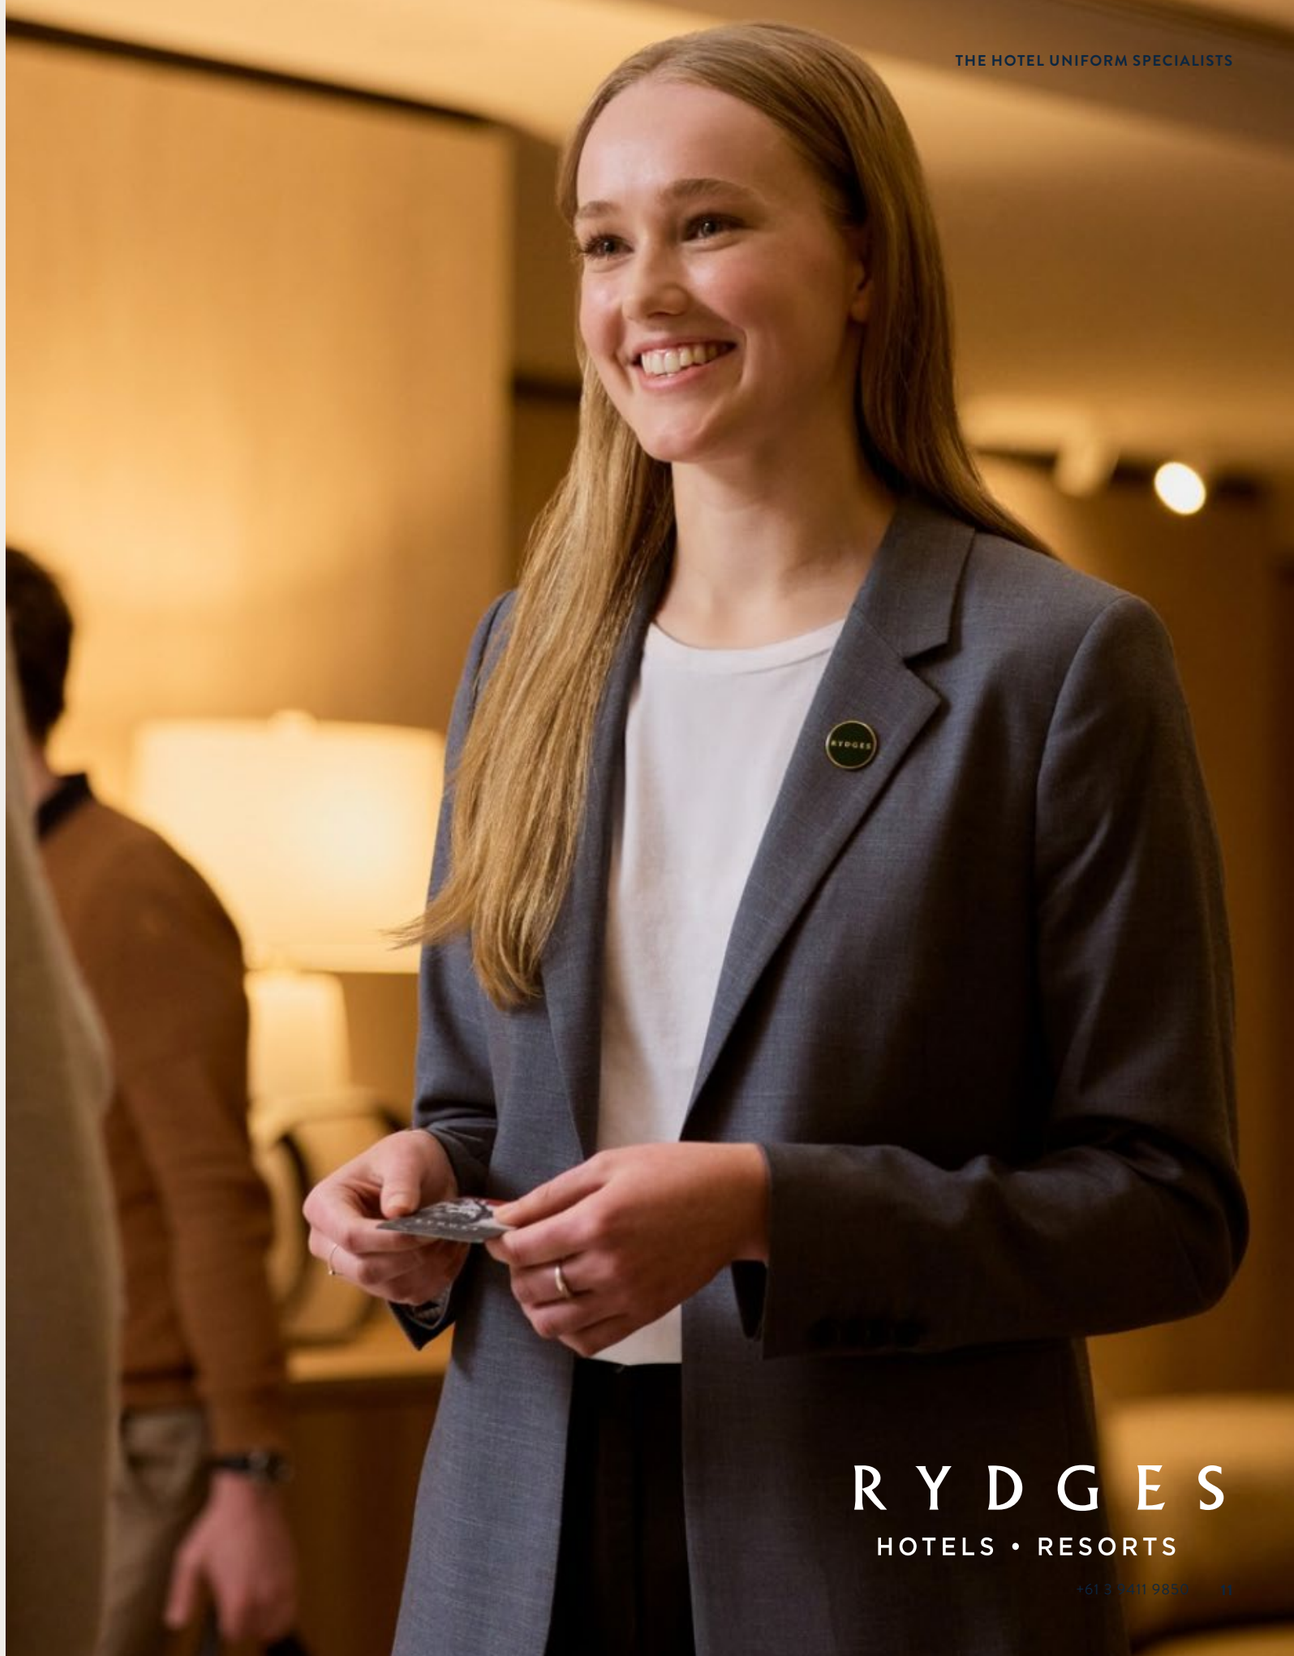

“A contemporary hotel brand like Rydges required a contemporary uniform. We collaborated with the team at Cargo Crew to curate a uniform range that struck the perfect balance between simple and sophisticated.

Rolling it out across multiple locations here in Australia and New Zealand was seamless. I can’t recommend them enough.”

Front of House - Management & Concierge

The first point of contact for your guests, your reception team is the face of your hotel - from first greetings to final farewells

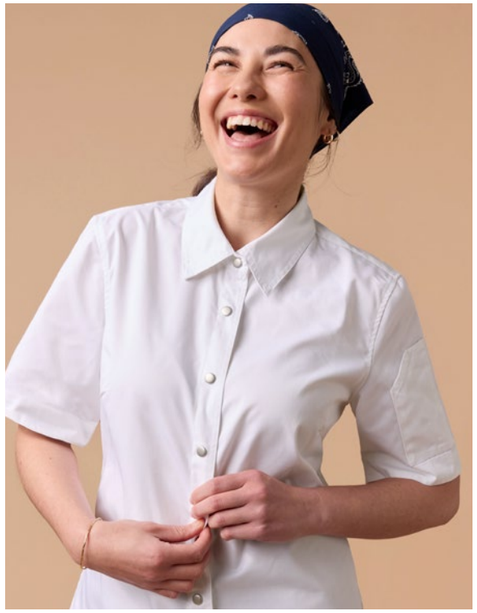

Food & Beverage, Conference & Events

We design essential uniform styles that deliver a complete working wardrobe for the whole team

Back of House – Chef

When the heat is on, your chefs need uniforms that can handle the pressure just like they do. Functionality is king here, but there's no reason it can't come with a touch of style.

House Keeping

Central to your hotel's reputation, housekeeping is responsible for keeping your spaces fresh and spotless, so their uniforms must stand up to demanding days while looking professional.

ETHICS & SUSTAINABILITY

Our commitment

We are committed to creating products that work harder and deliver more! Since crafting our first Apron two decades ago, our quality promise remains: when we cut our uniforms, we don't cut corners.

A garment that bears the Cargo Crew logo comes with the confidence you and your crew are wearing a quality garment that has been tried and tested and created with purpose. No throw-away promotional apparel here.

Sustainable Quality
We offer fabrics made without harmful substances

Ethical Supply Chain
All factory partners comply with Sedex or BSCI social audits

A NEW WORKWEAR SOLUTION HAS ARRIVED:

EQUIPT

FROM THE TEAM THAT BROUGHT YOU THE MODERN UNIFORM

Founded in 2002, Cargo Crew first disrupted the uniform market with a modern range of uniforms designed for staff to feel comfortable in and that they loved to wear. The team have now taken this 23 year experience, industry knowledge and robust systems for staff outfitting, to launch a new, elevated workwear range, Equipt.

The premium range provides solutions for tailored workwear that are fashion-forward and functionally-fit, without the supply chain and pricing roadblocks often found when creating one-off uniform programs, or when working with a fashion label.

Embracing contemporary fashion influences fused with classic styles, Equipt is designed as a capsule collection, with over 330 possible combinations of effortless workwear. Equipt is a perfect workwear solution for:

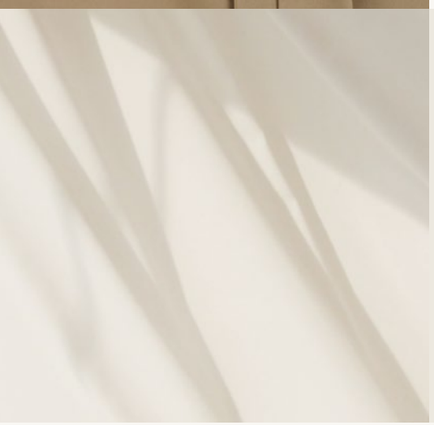

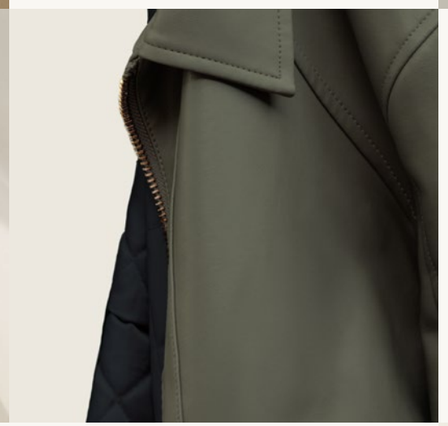

— Hotels
— Restaurants
— Resorts
— Modern Corporate

Clients of Cargo Crew can now enjoy the flexibility of shopping both the Equipt and Cargo Crew range, all in one destination.
